Despite the wealth of choices among the lovely ladies of Las Vegas, I kept coming back to the web site and TER reviews of Sweet May. Was it the photos? Creative, sexy videos? The fantastic customer satisfaction and tales of ribaldry? Yes. Yes. And yes. If you love sweetness, class, fashion and personality bundled into a mini keg of sexual dynamite...May is your gal. Non-VIPs, sign on for a May Day and take your vitamins. VIPs... read on. Hope I do this fantastic lady justice.

I was going to be in Vegas so I searched out some providers and found Sweet May. May does a thorough screening which is pretty painless. It was easy to set up a time with her via e mail. She has a nice process where you can fill out a form and request how you want her dressed at arrival, in the room, make up etc. May is petite 4'10" 85 #s and is Thai. So if you like petite Asian women that are sexy and fun to be with....

As a couple looking to enjoy a new experience we spent some time reading a lot of reviews before our Vegas get away. We both decided that Sweet May was our top choice. We contacted her by requesting an appointment and then a PM on p411. She was quick to respond and after a few emails we set a time and date. She continued to communicate through text messages right up to meeting us at our Hotel room. We were greeted by a beautiful and very kind lady. My wife was very nervous but May quickly had her relaxed and comfortable with her smile, easy going and caring conversation. We knew in minutes we hit the jackpot! The entire time was filled with fun and everything you fantasize about and then some. She actually went past the two hr appointment. You can't go wrong with this special lady, book her. VIP's read on for the juicy details.

May was easy to coordinate with. I was in Vegas on business and like the spinners so thought I would catch May. Glad I did. We met for a morning session. I had to meet her downstairs as the Hotel had security at the elevators. When she arrived she was fashionable and totally sexy with a business attire. I will repeat next time in Vegas.

Had a planned stopover in Vegas. So knowing that LV has a prodigious selection of providers, I spent some time researching and reading reviews. Top of my most desired list was Sweet May with her fun/sexy videos that earned her TER's Best Videos 2016 and 2017. Captivated by her sexiness and her flirtatious personality, I knew she'd be the best way to spend an evening in Vegas.

From my first email inquiry, I was already impressed when she responded within hours. Quick verification through TER and we set up our five hour dinner/dessert rendezvous. I was so grateful that my first choice of LV providers was available, I surprised May with a e-gift card to (her favorite) Agent Provocateur which she very much appreciated.

Due to the security logistics (2 weeks after the Vegas shooting), we met in the lobby of my luxury hotel. She was stunning in her black professional, sexy dress already charming me with her sweet smile. From our first kiss in the elevator our chemistry began, but the real fun began when we got up to my suite.

This is my second time with May and it felt better than the first (which was pretty great)! She reached out that she was coming to town spur of the moment – was I interested? I had missed her on her last 2 visits (my fault, my regrets) so I responded immediately – damn right I was. Initially, the time that worked for me, didn't work for her, she made some adjustments and I had to wait a whole week anticipating her visit.

Couple of emails, back and forth to set the tone, she asked if I had any clothing preferences – I responded, 'as little as possible' she didn't disappoint.

The evening before she emailed me the location and how to reach her. Morning of, I got a friendly text, told her I was at the location, a really nice suite hotel. I arrived at the door, a gentle knock and the door swung open and there was May looking awesome in nothing but her panties. Big hug, LFK to DFK and off to the bedroom to let the games begin.

May truly deserves the moniker Sweet May because she is such a nice, sweet lady! Non-VIP's – second time was better than the first – if she comes to your locale, or you get a chance to see her on her home turf, you will be happy you did! She is a beautiful lady with an awesome personality. Treat her with respect and she will reciprocate. VIPs, read on...

This is my second time seeing May and there is a good reason why. She is beautiful, performs extremely well and is lots of fun. My purpose for traveling to Vegas was to get to the West coast so we spent my layover time together. May kept sending sexy text messages every day before the meeting day. May was anxious to see me and wanted to come earlier. We texted one another several times from the time I landed through the time she arrived. When we met May gave such a welcoming warm hot DFK. May was wearing a stunning outfit showing off her fabulous legs and tight body with black heels, skin tight dark green dress jeans with a tight leopard top. May's pictures do not give her justice. We had 90 minutes due to the layover so we had a quick drink @ the casino bar then up to the VIP lounge for a another quick drink. Would not believe how many heads she turns as we walked by. She truly looks like a model. I will be seeing May again and again. VIPS read on.

May's website indicated she was open to it, and was she ever! She even re-arranged an appointment to accommodate me, which was very thoughtful. I don't have enough words or time to do May justice, but she earns the name "Sweet May" in every way. Just a delightful person. She looks way better than her photos. As her name says she is Sweet. She is from Thailand where a lot of American soldiers visited during the Vietnam War. Also has a beautiful smile. Sat down talked about a few things. After a few minutes, I decided to go back to my place. We arrived at my place, sat down and talked some more. Then I decided she should sit on my lap. I planned a trip to Vegas and decided to try the hobby for the first time. After reviewing multiple sites, and reviews, I decided to contact May because she was open to "Newbies" and seemed like a friendly person. I contacted May to arrange a 5hr dinner date. Setting things up was easy. Her emails were prompt and friendly and the background check was painless. May is an excellent communicator via email which helped the process along.

Of course I had the usual apprehensions. She looked great in her website, but what if the real person is a weak imitation of the photos and video? What do I do then? Boy was I wrong! When I first saw May, I was blown away! May looks amazing! At 4'10" and 85lbs, her petite body rocks! She was dressed in a black dress (at my request) and had a professional appearance that wasn't over the top. She has this incredible smile that would put anyone, including me, at ease instantly. We spent some time out and about, dinner and a show and then returned to the room.

Contacted May looking for a great Asian experience. Was very easy to talk to and work out details. I picked a longer time, so she asked if I wanted her to bring any outfits. Most definitely! She has some broken English, but understood everything i said, and her accent made it more interesting. Tiny athletic girl, made for a sexy time in bed. I would ask for her time again for sure.

This is an update on May from an earlier review I made. I was in Vegas for some fun and decided to call May again. I had seen her about four years ago and wanted a provider I knew I could trust because I didn't have the time to research any new girls. I usually don't repeat but I remembered I had a good time with her so I went for it. I was with friends that I didn't want to know that I was hooking up with a provider. I told May that and she was very discrete and made it work out so that she visited at midnight to avoid having to tell my friends some story about why I couldn't hang out.

Was in Las Vegas for the week on a business trip and was interested in some companionship of the female persuasion and I hit P411 and Eros and finally I selected May from P411. I sent her an a request via P411 and since this was short notice I did not expect a reply. Sure enough she checked me out on P411 and I received a response and just a few minutes later I received an email. We decided on time and it was set to go. We met in the lobby and it was very easy to pick her out. I asked if she would like a drink and we moved to the bar and she ordered a glass of wine and we chatted for a few moments and I said lets take our drinks to the room and the little beauty walked to my room. Once in the room we chatted a bit and then...

Long before Sweet May became a TER video winner I have been a client of hers. In fact, I recently saw Sweet May in Las Vegas before she headed out for her extended vacation to Thailand. On our last visit, she asked me why I have never written her a review on her considering I have been a client of hers for several years.

Something's you just like to keep something to yourself, but I finally acquiesced and wrote one.

I always have a great time with May and we enjoy spending good quality time together when I am in Las Vegas. This time I had reached out to May to see if she was interested in spicing up our session with another provider and she was really game for it. Although I have seen May several times before we had never done a three-way with another lady. We had talked about doing a double with another Las Vegas provider who I was friends with and I thought she would be perfect. May really was interested in meeting her too. I reached out to my other lady friend but the timing of my visit would not work for her. It would have been amazing if I could have pulled it off because it would have been a first for May and I together. Just think, not one hot Asian beauty, but two. I told May that I would still see her, but it would just be a solo session. She was still super exited to see me again. I could have picked another provider, but I had my mind set up with one particular lady for us. May and I are going to save it for my next visit.

Like I said Sweet May and I have mutual friends in the business and since we have seen each other before scheduling was a breeze. May also has to be one of the sweetest and nicest ladies I have ever met in this business. I always have a great time when I am with her. She is warm, genuine and very fun to be with; not only that; she is really cute. Sweet May also has a lot of class and style which I like and she never disappoints me. I was at a meeting with colleagues from work and I was staying at a hotel that had security and a key card for the elevator so I had to meet her somewhere. This is not my first rodeo and May is a pro at this too. I met May at our pre-determined place near a coffee shop and she looked amazing in a beautiful black dress, nice heels and her makeup and hair were done to perfection. May is always dressed to the 9's and she complimented me on my attire as well. I never like to disappoint her and I strive to look my best.

We greeted each other with a big hug and kiss. I looked out of my peripheral vision and saw someone from work that I knew was looking at us. It actually was not a big deal because we were both dressed up and looked like friends catching up in Vegas. I always appreciate that May is dressed so classy and elegant. She does not bring any unwanted attention to herself which I respect. If she did I would have been busted. You would never know she was an escort and that's how it should be with a professional. After a few minutes we headed up stairs for the fireworks to begin.....

I had noticed that May would be visiting my state. I had noticed her many times in the past but had never reached out to get together with her. As luck would have it, I had a window of opportunity during her last visit to the Boston area and I was happy we connected well in advance of her visit. I was easily verified through TER and P411 and setting up the appointment was a breeze. A couple of days before she emailed me to confirm our date and all was set. I was really looking forward to it and May didn't disappoint in any way.

I had missed May on a previous visit – my fault. I maintained contact and and got to know her a little bit through email and received the good news she was coming back to Boston.

Screening was easy – all done through text and email. Rightfully she is conscious of her safety while being very discrete.

A couple emails back and forth confirming appointment duration, location, and any special requests – she is eager to dress to impress.

The agreed upon day finally came, I arrived and texted for the room number. Nice hotel in MetroWest. I had to dodge the maids who were nearby in the hallway, a light knock on the door and it opened immediately. Behind the door was May – sweet, petite, looking better than in her pictures, dressed as requested.

She is an amazing provider. Wonderful personality. Gorgeous woman. Highly recommended.

I have been looking at May's add for some time and couldn't wait until my next visit to Las Vegas. I made arrangements for an afternoon date after I arrived, but a winter storm cancelled my plane and plans with her. Once I made my way to Las Vegas, she was more than willing to adjust our date to a morning rendezvous. The days before we staying in touch through texts and the morning of our date, she showed up on time.

I opened the door to a beautiful petite woman. She wore a tight white dress that hugged her perfect curves. She came in, we kissed, and she went to the bathroom to freshen up. She joined me on the bed, sitting/leaning on me while we got to know each other. She was very easy to talk to and very soon we were both comfortable with each other. So, it is that time again, my birthday was coming up and I wanted to spend it with May again. Sent her an e-mail and time request, and she responded the next day, and our date was set!!! A couple of e-mails leading up to the date, inquiring about any outfit. My response was, "No, the wrapping isn't important, just the gift underneath." I confirmed white wine and chocolate covered strawberries, and she happily said yes. Day of the date, she sent a conformation e-mail, and text as she was arriving. She knocked on the door and entered as I opened it. She gave me a big hug, and I lead her to the living room.

met May on a trip to London a few months ago. I live in the States and wanted to do a little traveling, but was undecided exactly where. Visiting May's web site quickly helped me make up my mind. I was aroused and intrigued by her excellent site.

When I talked to her on the phone, she seemed a little detached. When she opened the door, I knew all my worries were needless. May is stunning. She poured us some wine, and we sat and chatted for a few minutes. She is very charming. Between her wonderful accent (well at least to a yank) and her amazing body, it was quite difficult to behave in a gentlemanly manner. After we got business taken care of, May took my hand and led me up the stairs to the bedroom. I'm really surprised that I didn't trip. My eyes were glued to her incredible derriere as she floated up the stairs. Even though my visit was months ago, the memories are as fresh and exciting as they were when we met. May is not one you will easily forget.

I was heading to Las Vegas on vacation with friends and knew I definitely wanted to plan a hookup. Sweet May's pics caught my eye last year when she posted in the 'photos' board and I struck up a PM conversation with her as I saw she visited Boston every now and again and I was trying to get her to come to Philadelphia or NJ. I had never been with a true, 100% Asian before and I was really looking for a true 100% spinner as well and May fit both pre-requisites to a "t". I really could not have been happier with my time spent with May and I would HIGHLY recommend her to anyone visiting or those who live in Sin City. As another reviewer has indicated, if spinners are your thing – or I will even add a top notch, Asian woman experience, I cannot imagine anyone better than May....

I slipped away from my friends and met May at the Lobby Bar of hotel. She looked positively beautiful and scrumptious in high heels, and a nice little flower dress that hugged her body just enough to get me excited for what was to come. We decided to have a drink and get to know one another better which was fine as I had booked a 1.5hr apt. May does have a heavy accent, but nothing whereby I could not understand her nor her understand me. She is such a genuine person and incredibly grateful for where she is in life. I was immediately smitten by her and found her adorable and sexy as all get out. After about 20 mins I asked her if she wanted to go upstairs, and she replied very girlishly "yes, please". Wasn't that I wasn't enjoying our conversation, I definitely was, I was just getting very anxious to A – see her in all her glory and B – didn't want my friends to find me & ruin the party before it started. Once in the room, she excused herself to bathroom to freshen, and I got down to my birthday suit. She came out in a hot-as-hell thong bra and panty set, still with high heels. She saw I was naked and got excited. VIPs read on....

Been eying May for quite some time. Waiting for the right opportunity for me. Due to some personal reasons she had me do a couple extra things to get cleared because I couldn't do her normal routine. She was being safe and I respect that totally. Everything was done via email until the actual appointment was set. That's her way of doing things, at least for new clients. Once the appointment was set I couldn't stop thinking about her. I had read the reviews, seen all her pics.

She texted me when she was leaving her home, arriving earlier than she thought. I greeted her at the door, and she was stunning and attractive in a nice summer dress, very casual, as requested. We chatted for a bit, then she went to bathroom to change, and came out and I see this really hot little Thai gal enter my bedroom. We chatted for at least 20 mins, which was fine by me. She's such a "sweet" May. It was a very engaging conversation. Non-vips, you won't go wrong with May. She's now my ATF and I'm a bit finicky. It really takes something special to be a ATF and wannabe regular.

I have only recently returned to the hobby and am new to the Las Vegas area. I contacted Sweet May through her website and listed the only reference I had. She responded relatively quickly and informed me she needed to check out my reference. This took a day to get done and then we scheduled an appointment for the following evening at my house.

She showed up actually a bit early after texting me when leaving to come over. She dressed casually as I requested. WOW, she is extremely gorgeous and petite. Her pictures cannot possibly show just how petite she is. She came into my house and made me feel very comfortable with a wonderful kiss. We sat down on the couch for a while to get to know each other and talked a lot about her home country of Thailand.

After awhile we went upstairs to show her the view from my balcony and then the fun began.....

Visiting Las Vegas, saw May's website and HAD to meet with her! I contacted her a few weeks before my trip and had some difficulty going through the verification process (my fault, not hers), and she was completely sweet, patient and helpful throughout. Finally I was able to be verified and we tried to set a date, but found out that she would be leaving for vacation right as I would be getting into LV. Fortunately for me, she returned the evening before I left for home and we were able to meet the following day.

She showed up on time to my hotel room on Sunday morning, wearing a very tight and sexy workout outfit as I requested (we all have our fetishes). She looked so tiny and absolutely beautiful & sexy. She has the most amazing, tight body. If you're not a VIP, definitely check her out, you'll thank me. Those of you that are VIP read on ...

I've seen May before so when she was coming to town she let me know a long time in advance. The hardest part is the wait! She has some videos on her website now and plenty of photos but nothing compares to her live in person beauty. Beautiful flawless soft tanned skin covering a toned super model body, so tiny she doesn't seem real. When you are in her company you are her world and that's a good place to be... Truly a bucket list experience.

I missed out on seeing May the last time she visited this area. When she emailed me that she was returning I quickly scheduled a date and time. We communicated back and forth until she arrived. She provided the location and when I arrived she provided the room number. May is very petite at about 4'11" and about 95 lbs but she is pretty and has a lovely petite body. May provides a great time and I highly recommend her to all. Don't miss out when she comes to your area. Now for the rest of the story....

Easy to get verified and easy to set up an appointment. Originally didn't think we'd get to meet as she was all booked up, but she had a couple of cancellations. Nice hotel at a convenient location just off the highway. Easy to be discreet. Walked in and saw a very petite woman in a short dress with a big smile. Non-VIPs, I would repeat!

I've seen quite a few times now so set up was very easy. From the first appointment I always felt very comfortable with May. She's a very sweet person; soft spoken and open. Her accent is very cute and she has a very feminine, sensual way about her. She makes you feel at ease and gives you her full attention for the entire session. I have a thing for hands/nails and hers are perfect. Her face is beautiful and her body is off the charts. As she states on her profile and website she is only 85 pounds and there isn't an ounce of fat on her body. It's toned and her skin is very soft. Her beasts are really nice...very proportionate to her size. Her ass is probably the nicest one I've ever seen. High heels, stocking and a short skirt...wow! I got to the room on time and she greeted me as soon as I got to the door. I big kiss and hug as she welcomed me. We sat on the bed and chatted for a minute or two before I excused myself to wash up. The next 90 minutes were fantastic. Non-Vips you owe it to yourself to see May. She'll be your next ATF!

I requested a dinner and desert session with the possibility of taking in a show on the strip. She arrived on time, dressed as requested and looking lovely as ever.

May's ability to make the session, from planning to end, a totally sensual experience with one of your sexy college classmates. I would highly recommend!!

First of all May only does outcall but I asked for incall, so her response, which I did not expect, was that she would get a room for us if I would split the fee. I was floored by her exceptional service to suggest that, I thought that that was so cool. How could I say no :-)! Anyways we set up a time and day, I couldn't wait for the time, I was so excited in anticipation! So I get to the hotel she chose for us and she had texted me that she was waiting for me, I thought at the front desk :-)! I walk through the casino and heading to the front desk but pass a couple of eateries and there is this absolutely gorgeous lady, and a lady she is, sitting at a counter facing the walkway. Exactly like her pictures, very pretty, I stopped right in front of her and she looked up puzzled and then smiled this beautiful smile and asked, "how did you find me" :-)? I said I didn't, I was just walking to the front desk :-)! Anyways in public so she came around the counter a little hug and kiss on the lips and off to our room :-)! Oh God, she's a small beautiful Thai Lady, very stylish, very manicured, very well mannered and an overall air of reserve and confidence; however not in the bedroom :-)!!! And off we went to our room :-)!!!

I read a small TER post about May coming to LA and after checking her reviews and her website photos I decided to contact her. I judge a lot on how a provider responds to an email and May was prompt, witty and interesting to me. After a reference check we made plans for a couple of days later when she was going to be in LA. She continued to keep contact with short but well thought out emails wanting to make sure that we had everything to make the evening memorable for both of us. When I arrived at the hotel she provided the room# and I was there in no time. When she opened the door I was pleasantly surprised with her looks, voice and demeanor. May is a very sweet woman who knows what she wants in life and possesses a very welcoming attitude and outlook on life. I enjoyed the conversation and our time together equally well. I highly recommend May if you get an opportunity to see her.

I have known May for some time and always make it a point to see her on every visit to Las Vegas, so even with very short notice, May found time for me and, despite her busy schedule, gave me a couple of time/date choices. This is typical of May, always enthusiastically accommodating. New customers won't find it quite as easy, but they will find May working hard and in a timely fashion to accommodate a customer while making certain that her personal safety is protected. This is as it should be. In any case, time with May is well worth the effort. She is prototypical Thai, gorgeous, friendly and generally very enthusiastic about her job. Non-VIP's, no need to hesitate with May, she's the real deal. If May doesn't make you happy, you might need counseling.

I had the EXTREME PLEASURE of seeing May a year ago, and I had a fantastic time (see my Feb 2014 review), and I couldn't wait until my work sent me back to Vegas so I could see her again. It took longer than I thought, but exactly a year later, I was finally going back. I had done a good job saving my nickels and dimes for my next "date"—so much so that I actually had enough for two dates during my time in Vegas. After weighing my options and suffering sleepless nights, I decided that one session with May wouldn't be enough, so I told her that I wanted to set up two, 90-minutes sessions, with one day separating our sessions (heck, two sessions with May isn't enough for me, but it's better than one session!). As you might be able to tell, May has cast a spell on me that is very hard to break from. She is an extremely beautiful, petite, young lady with a good heart, and she really enjoys what she does. Treat her right, and she will give you memories that will last you a lifetime. VIPs, this is my story...

Right at the arranged time, there was a knock on the door and I opened it to one of the tiniest, most beautiful creatures I had ever seen. I invited her in and we sat on the bed and chatted for a bit and she is very easy to talk to. I suggested we get "more comfortable" and she excused herself to the bathroom. My head is still spinning from my date with May, and "sweet" is indeed the perfect moniker for this delightful and delicious woman. May was on my TDL from the moment I moved to Vegas in March but I didn't get around to contacting her until she posted here in July about her new videos...which pushed me to action. I pm'd with a date request but unfortunately May was going to be out of town at the time. Two and a half months later I emailed and we set a four hour dinner date. Our communication up until day of was by email with texting once May got to my favorite resort on the strip. Based on her kind and swift emails I knew I had made the right choice. We met at a bar there and enjoyed a glass of wine and nonstop convo until it was time to visit the restaurant. May was an absolute knockout in a very pretty knee length dress and five inch black stilettos which I had requested. I had also asked for minimal makeup and no perfume which she kindly obliged. She's so beautiful she doesn't need makeup...and perfume makes me sneeze!

We had a cozy and private table and our delicious meal was accompanied by an excellent Oregon pinot noir and superior service. We "railroaded" at the table and snuggled, giggled and chatted away throughout dinner, enjoying the masculine yet romantic atmosphere. We flirted shamelessly while dining, and May's baby smooth honey colored skin, sparkling deep eyes, silky jet black hair, 10,000 kilowatt smile, and natural vivaciousness had my engine redlining. After dessert and espresso it was time to hit the road back to my place...

I've seen May before so when she was coming to town she let me know a long time in advance. The hardest part is the wait! She sent a text to let me know she was ready early and gave me the room number, in I went and soon I was in the arms of the beautiful Sweet May. She has some videos on her website now and plenty of photos but nothing compares to her live in person beauty. Beautiful flawless soft tanned skin covering a toned super model body, so tiny she doesn't seem real. When you are in her company you are her world and that's a good place to be...

There are not enough positive adjectives to describe this wonderful lady. There are so many good things about her I know I will leave something out. Fun, great personality, intelligent, beautiful smile, beautiful inside and out, etc, etc, etc. First contacted her through TER PM a few weeks before my trip to Vegas then switched over to e mail. Very responsive and easy to communicate with. I knew from reading her great reviews and seeing how beautiful she is that I wanted to plan an extended date with her. Then I saw the new videos she recently posted and I really couldn't wait to see her. We decided to make it a 4 hour dinner date. I'm so glad I did. Wished it would have been a 4-day date!! lol...This lady is AMAZING!! I highly recommend and will definitely try to see her again and again and again. I wish I was back in Vegas now!!
She arrived at my hotel door in a very short and very tight dress...VIP's read on...

As other have said, May is the perfect sexy little spinner. I found her doing some research for my trip to Vegas. I reached out her a couple of weeks before my trip, provided her with the info for verification and sent her a text when I got in town. We met up that evening... she sent me a text when she got to my hotel. I met her in the lobby so she could get past security by the elevator. She was better looking than the photos and a petite little thing. She's in a nice dress that shows off her tight little body; it wasn't overt, just another sexy girl in Vegas. We hugged and kissed. We went up to my room, May and I got comfortable and continued talking, kissing and hugging. Her skin is very smooth and she smelled wonderful. Non VIP's...May is a great date and I hope to repeat my next visit to Vegas. VIP's read on...

May is a perfect sexy little Thai spinner, as others have said on their reviews. I tried to meet her 2 years ago. My first verification didn't check out since I was new. I contacted her really early for an appointment in July. After being verified she said she was free in June. I was going to EDC so I scheduled a date with her. She offered Great email communication before and after the appointment. Sweetheart and friendly. Meet her at a hotel lounge, she showed up early to our appointment date which I thought was great. We talked for a few minutes; we meet there since my hotel had lobby security which I had to walk her through. She showed up showing off her sexy body and as we walked to my room she had heads turning. Got to my room and we talked while we got comfortable which other. If you like Asian women I highly recommend May, she is an awesome sweetheart that will make any frown turn into a smile. Highly recommended..Vips read on..May is a great date and I will repeat, hopefully soon

Setup was easy with May through P411. I believe she checked with at least one of my OKays, so she is careful. We had a mix-up with phone numbers (I have two that I use) where I gave her one number and used another she did not recognize. I think this spooked her a little and delayed out meeting. This was totally my fault and should not be marked against her. It turned out to be a good thing though, because the anticipation that built up made out time together all the more memorable.

When May knocked on my hotel room door, I let her in and knew immediately I was out of league. It was clear from the start that she's a little sexual dynamo. We sat on the bed and make a little small talk and engaged in a little LFK. She was wearing a nice short dress that revealed her tight figure. After a little while, she excused herself to the bathroom to change and get ready. I had asked if she could bring the school girl style outfit she's wearing in some of her pictures. She didn't have that exact outfit, but one just like it in a different color. That was OK, because when she came out of the bathroom she made that one look just as good.

Non-VIPs.....I would repeat.....again and again and again....

May is the ultimate sexy little spinner. I had been researching this site in preparations for my trip to LV. I was attracted to May's profile. She stood out from the crowd with her tiny frame and beautiful Asian face. I started up the communication 4 weeks before my trip, and we kept in touch once a week with a friendly email until my arrival. May's genuine sweetness is apparent in all of her communications. I knew we were going to click and have a good time. After much anticipation, the time of our date was finally here. I texted May to let me know when she was parking. Much to my pleasant surprise she was running early and was already here. I opened the door before I could button up my shirt. In walks this beautiful little woman. She's in a nice dress that shows off her very fit body. We hugged and kissed. I had prepared the room with some candles and music. May and I got comfortable and continued talking, kissing and hugging. Her skin is very smooth and she smelled wonderful. As the action started to heat up, May excused herself to the bathroom to put on a little something special for me. She returned wearing white garters, bra and heels. May has no body fat. She's lean and very well proportioned. She is 85 lbs of pure sexiness. She helped me to undress and we got comfortable on the bed. More dfk and I removed her bra to reveal some very nice man made breasts that fit her body perfectly. Her nipples were sensitive and she enjoys nipple play. We are both pleasers and it was a race as to who was going to please who first. Non VIP's...May is a great date and I hope to repeat. VIP's read on...

I first saw May's ad two years ago, when I was new to this hobby – I saw that she needed references and didn't have any so I fantasized and figured I'd call her up when I could pass her screening. It took two years to build up the references and for my schedule to let me get back to Vegas – I finally saw May last week and boy was it worth the wait. I made the appointment a few weeks in advance and the anticipation kept growing. She texted me from the lobby of my hotel and a few minutes I heard a small knock – I opened the door and saw this tiny and sexy Thai woman standing in front of me with a smile that lit up the room. She gave me a hug and a kiss and I let her into my room – the next two hours were some of the best I've had. VIPS can get the details; non-VIPs, book a trip now and visit this lovely lady.

I just got back from Vegas this morning. I'm so excited from my experience with May I had to write this review. I emailed her a few weeks back since I new I would be visiting. We had a couple of emails back and forth once references cleared she said she would text me the morning of my appointment.

May texted me 40 minutes early said she was in the area asked if she could come up.

Who was I to argue. I told my buddy staying in the suite with me to get lost for a couple of hours. A knock on the door and WOW THIS CUTE PETITE LITTLE IS STANDING THERE WITH A BIG SMILE. NON members she is the best! Need I say more?

We set the date/time and I was looking forward to meeting her. When she arrived to my room, she looked pretty hot and her pics are accurate. She is a spinner in every sense of the word. We chatted for a few minutes and she snacked on some organic cucumbers that I bought from Trader Joes; because she loves eating cucumbers. She asked me what I would like for her to wear and I told her anything would be great; so she excused herself to change. What can be said of May that has not already been said? When I found out I was coming to Vegas I contacted her about seeing me. A few very nice e-mails back and forth, a check of my references and we were all set. All I had to do was wait for my trip. So what did I do in the meantime? I looked at her website quite a bit, not sure I could believe she was that attractive. She appears so much taller than her listed height of 4'10" but that is in pictures. As previously agreed upon, I texted May when I arrived in town to let her know I was there and we were still on for the evening. May was supposed to call me when she arrived at my hotel and I was to meet her in the lobby. She arrived a few minutes before our time and called to see if that was OK. I couldn't believe my ears. I have been hobbing for quite a while and can not recall that ever happening to me before. Quite a refreshing start to our evening. Wow... May had been on my radar from nearly a year ago when I actually thought about becoming a hobbyist, while I just happened to be in Vegas at that time too. Hmm. So.. There I was in Vegas and I sent a request to May to see if she would be able to see me in a couple of days along with her required information. Setup was a breeze with the proper information provided and May thanked me for making it easy by doing so in my initial request.

I had some flexibility in my schedule and let her know but she was able to accommodate my first requested date and time. Non VIP's photo's are accurate and this is one young lady who is eager to please and returns ten fold what she gets. If a petite Thai spinner is your thing, it would be foolish, in my opinion, not to see her if you have the opportunity. VIP's.. Read on..

I found May on TER through my research. I was anxious to spend some time with an asian spinner girl, so sweet May looked to fit the bill. At 4'10" and 85 pounds, I was certain May would be spinning around my Johnson with ease.

Getting set up with May was really easy. She verified me and we set the time. As always, my schedule got jacked around, but May rolled with it until we finally met.

When I met May in the hotel lobby, I got a bit lightheaded. She's nicer looking than her pictures and when we embraced for an introductory hug, I felt her small, firm, spinner frame beneath her little black dress. At this point, I was doing high fives in my mind, thanking the past TER reviewers who'd blazed the Sweet May trail, and hoping my emerging hard on wouldn't scare any of the hotel guests.

Once we got to the room, May was the asian spinner I'd been longing for. Let's put it this way, May will satisfy you AND fill your spank bank for a long time.

A few years back I wanted to see May but as luck would have it she was out of the country visiting her family in Thailand. My bad luck. This years trip however was a different story. I filled out May's booking form on her site almost 2 months ahead of time and she responded right away. I wanted to make sure I could get a chance to see May. May said because I was booking so far in advance I could have any day and time I wanted. She also asked if she could wear anything special for me. I requested the date and time and asked that she either wear garters and thigh highs or even the schoolgirl outfit she has on in the pics on her site. The date was set and all I had to do was wait. We kept in contact via email until the day of our date and May text me upon her arrival at my hotel. I had to meet May to walk her through security at the elevator's. It was not hard to spot May, she is so tiny but was looking so sexy. May greeted me with a smile and a hug. We went up to my suite and once inside the fun began.

I have long lusted for May. I've spent much of my life in Asia and have always found Asian women, particularly Thai women, very attractive. May is quintessential Thai femininity – quiet, happy and indescribably sexy, almost without effort. May is beautiful, she is smart, and she is a very real person. Website pictures are extremely accurate except that I would say that they are a bit two-dimensional and do not give you a perfectly clear view of the beauty that she possesses. She is tiny yes. It's summer time and I was in the mood to see a pretty Asian girl. May has an extensive Internet presence which normally I kinda worry about, but I decided to take a chance. Phone communications went well. Time, date, place arranged nicely. She has a pretty high fee so I was hoping it was worth it. But the bottom line is she is a small package of Asian fun.

May is a smokin hot pro that gives a great massage. She's pricey but she's worth saviThe Juicy Details Setting up the appointment was easy. I arrived and placed the donation on the table. May told me to get undressed and lay on the table so I did. She undressed and I was pretty amazed by her perfection. I had seen her pictures but they don't do justice how complete of a package of sexy she is. Tits and ass so perfect I was very excited. She gives an amazing massage that is more than just a formality of things to come. She teased me a few times before finally grabbing hold and giving an amazing performance. She gave such a great handjob but really took her time so it was quite an orgasm.

This was my second time seeing Sweet May and the fact that I repeated should be enough to let you know how special Sweet May is, but of course on with the details. I contacted Sweet May in the early evening via email and she was available just a few short hours later to come to my hotel for a 2 hour appt. She replies quickly and stays in contact throughout. When I met her in the lobby I knew I was in for a good time. She was dressed casually per my request in tight jeans and she is a true spinner. Couldn't wait to get upstairs...

I had plans for a return provider, but she got ill and had a hard time getting back to me. I think she was hoping she would get better and could make the date. I had a hotel room and was in it when she called and said she couldn't make it that night. No problem, as it turns out. I saw that Sweet May was in town and sent some emails and after she checked my TER references, we were set to go. Although Sweet May is very tiny, her face and smile are very beautiful, and her body is proportionally perfect. She has the perfect courtesan attitude, in that, I am "here for you but I will enjoy myself also".

I've seen May 7 or so times in the last few years. Her pictures can't possibly capture her radiance. The poses and smiles in a picture are two dimensional and May is so much more. You can't take your eyes off of her and are swept up by the power of this unique force of nature. Book extra time to get to know her, she might be the smartest must driven woman I've ever known.

The process to meet May has been well-described by other hobbyists, so I will omit this.

May is stunning. I have a preference for either very tall or very petite providers, and May obvious fits in the latter category. Even in heel, she is very short, and quite svelte as well.

She greeted me dressed (as requested) in a short dress and heels, and we engaged in some sensual kissing.

She is quite skilled at this (and every other activity subsequently engaged in), and I would have been content to have done this for the entire session. However, the man downstairs had other ideas, so eventually we proceeded to more intimate endeavors.

What I enjoyed most about my experience with May was her accomodating attitude, attractive face (she looks better in person), silky hair, and absolutely prfect skin.

I would highly recommend her. and will repeat. As I am usually a "variety is the spice of life hobbyist", this is a strong vote of confidence.

There have been many things said of Sweet May, and really they are all true. I setup an appointment through her website just under a week before going to Vegas. She almost immediately responded and confirmed my references. We keep in touch via email a few times throughout the week, which I think is a nice way to ensure the appointment doesn't get 'lost' come the day of. She is very very sweet and incredibly sexy. It's not immediately clear from the pictures, but she is tiny and absolutely a knock out. For a relaxing and totally sensual experience, I couldn't recommend her more.

May is a stunning young woman. so beautiful in every way. And what a great personality she has to go along with her beauty. I've never been with a more petite woman. Under 5-feet tall and maybe 90 pounds soaking wet. I was excited to meet her and felt my blood pressure rise when she called to let me know she was in the lobby and ready to go. Was headed to Vegas for CES and found May's ad and website. I am a sucker for a beautiful Asian spinner and after reading May's reviews, I knew I had to see her. We traded emails and set up a get together for early evening on the day I arrived. May is a pleasure to deal with – very responsive and very considerate (she was going to be only a couple of minutes late for appointment but still made sure to let me know). Met her in the lobby of my hotel and was simply blown away. She arrived in jeans and a t-shirt per my request and added a short leather jacket and some seriously high heels. The t-shirt showed just a bit of her perfectly flat stomach and accented her great chest. She is truly a sight to behold – a beautiful woman. We wandered to a bar and talked over drinks for about 45 minutes. She is a very nice person and a good conversationalist. We then decided it was time to head up to my room. It was the experience of a lifetime. Non-VIPs you must see her if you get the chance. She is beautiful, a sexual dynamo and a sweet, sweet person. I will repeat every chance I get.

I was in town for CES and was able to fly solo, which is sometimes great because I get to hobby too! I wanted to try someone new this trip and did a bunch of research and decided on May. Her form is easy to fill out. She responded pretty quick. Luckily I had my references and white list in order so verification was painless. We were able to decide on a day and time.

One thing I gotta say that she is very punctual, even in a busy time such as CES. It's such a rarity with women in general, much less providers. She keeps you in the loop on when she's nearby and heading up. She texted me about 45 minutes early and said she was available any time now, but I wasn't ready. It was strange being the guy who makes the GIRL wait, haha. Anyway, she shows up at the door – on time. I love that.

Anyway, May is a gorgeous, petite little flower. She's such a small lady, but built well. She's wearing a nice coat, and a sexy dress underneath...

Sweet May is such a treasure. She is cautious and does screen but no problems and it's easy. I'm SO glad I saw her and I'm certainly going to do my best to see her again. If I lived in Vegas I'd see her often. What I read here was right on target. May is from Thailand. She is friendly and a joy to be around. If I could keep her all to myself; I would.

Decided to burn a few vacation days and headed to Vegas for a few days. Decided to stay off the strip since intention was to do more outdoor activities (hike red rock area) than the Strip. Amazing enough, only spent a few hours in the casinos.

I emailed or P411 Sweet May when I got to Vegas and we set a time. May arrived at my hotel room and I was not disappointed in the least. May is very petite and is as great looking, if not better, than her pictures.

I highly recommend. I will repeat.

Was in LV on business and give her a call. She came to my hotel too and is very tiny but with a perfect figure. She was exactly on time and eager to please. She arrived in a little clingy black dress — a sexy young Asian plaything. I took her in my arms and she immediately started kissing me passionately and rubbing against me. She is super sexy and pretty. Will repeat next time in LV.

After being disappointed with fake pics with other LV SPs, and because my hotel has tight security, I asked May to meet me in the lobby of the hotel next door, and then come with me to my room together. She arrived early, texted me her location, and I ran over. She was exactly like the pics, only more elegant and prettier. And hot to trot, so we quickly went 'home', kissing in the elevator, then jumped in the shower together and the fun really began. My only regret was booking just 1 hour, cuz an overnight would have been the thing to do. Must repeat next time in Vegas.

Sweet May has nearly a hundred great reviews and this might be the best of all of them. I live in Las Vegas and met Sweet May one year ago in November. Even with all of the other Providers available to me in Sin City, I have seen her 26 times. THINK ABOUT THAT.....is there any better endorsement that I, or anyone else, could give her!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Wow! What an incredibly time. May is absolutely sweet and hungry to serve. May looks in person better than her photos on-line and her on-line photos look amazing. Unlike her photos, she does not have braces (older photo) and looks more refined then her photos suggest. Her petite stature is carried quite well. May's reviews on TER were incredible and quite accurate. May was very dilligent sticking with two reference checks and a confirmation to get an appointment. I set everything up via email and she was quite responsive with the first email a couple of hours after the initial inquiry despite the fact that she had just arrived back to Las Vegas. She is the perfect Thai package and delivers! TER members read on . . .

Wonderful service provider, really aims to please. Easy to contact with e-mail and set up a breeze with P411. Met her at the front of the hotel and knew I made the right choice. May's website is very classy! After looking at her pictures, and reviews, I knew that I wanted to spend time with her. I contacted her and she was very careful in screening, which I like. I gave her the information she needed to be comfortable, and the date and time was set. She was very good at communicating. I was very nervous as usual, but when we met in the lobby, and walked to the elevator, I knew that I made a great choice. She entered my room and we shared the view of the strip, and a bottle of wine. She asked if I had any music, and she gave me her favorites. We listened to her choices and visited about which artists we have seen and who we wanted to see. We visited about her home country, and I was so taken by her beauty and class! She asked if she could be excused to put on something sexy, and I didn't object to that!

This was a repeat visit for me with May – I was so impressed the first time. Contacting her is easy via her Web site and she responds back very promptly, unlike a lot of other providers I have had experience with. We made the arrangements for our date via e-mail. After I arrived in Vegas, I texted May with my hotel and room specifics, and received a prompt acknowledgement back. May is quite prompt, and at the designated time I heard a faint knock on my door. I opened it and there stood a vision – SWEET May, dressed semi-casual in a short, attractive dress, high heels and looking very sexy. She is a true Asian spinner with a terrific body. I invited her in, and we immediately hugged and kissed. We proceeded to the couch in my suite and the fun began. VIP's read on, those of you not VIP's, you need to do yourselves a favor and try to hook-up with her.

I had to retrieve from the lobby because she said security was tight at my hotel. But when I first saw her I was happy with the exotic look I was saw on her web sight. She is exactly like her photo's. I gave her a key to my room and she followed me up.

I have never met a provider who looks less like her photos than May. I don't say that as a negative. Hard to explain, but I'll say that the photos are two-dimensional, and suggest a woman older and less expressive than I found May to be. I had the incredible pleasure of enjoying the company of Sweet May on her limited trip to Boston. I have seen her many times but never get used to the feeling I get the first time I see her. She is truly a sweet beautiful part time girlfriend. Always perfectly groomed with silken hair and a beaming smile. It was a really early visit but she remembered (after 7 months) that I always get there early and contacted me 15mins before to let me know she was ready. You know, like your girlfriend would remember! Her room was larger than my first apartment and is always clean, sweet smelling and welcoming. I came in and got the tightest hug from this petite cutie, chit chatted for about 20 seconds then got lost on May island.

This was my second time seeing May, so I had been screened previously and we already had each others numbers. I've tried to get together with her a couple of times since our previous appointment (both in Vegas and Boston area) but our schedules just hadn't matched up. I texted May the day before I was to arrive in Vegas to see she was available, and luckily she was this time. Setting up a date for her to come to my hotel was a breeze. May texted me once she got to my hotel then came up to my room. She arrived right on time looking great in a dress that accentuated the curves on her petite frame. Once in the room.....

We exchanged emails a few weeks ago and verified through PM on TER. Emailed a few days before my visit to set up our time together and we texted the day of several times to confirm details. I needed to be discreet and asked her to meet on the restaurant level of my hotel on the strip which ended up turning into a mess as we were looking for each other on different floors. Finally called her up and we found each other. She is super hot and was wearing a conservative one piece floral tight skirt. We walked to my room and made small talk along the way. She is very sweet and we hit it off immediately. Once in the room I poured us some wine and we headed out onto the balcony to watch the fountains next door. We cuddled and talked for a long time. Her dress came up and she apologized for not wearing something more attractive but said she likes to blend in during the week. On the weekend she loosens up a bit. She asked if I wanted to see something hotter and she went inside and changed. She came out in a tiny, skin tight lingerie piece and I almost hit the floor. We went back outside and she climbed on top and we began kissing passionately. VIP read on...

This was the second time I have seen May. I saw her in April for the first time. I contacted her through P411 and went through some light screening. I did not have any OKs so she needed a reference which I provided to her. After the screening we were on for an appt time. May arrived right on time and texted me that she was in the hotel/casino so I went down to meet her. For the second meeting I just emailed May and we set up a time. I ended up canceling because I was going to have to leave Vegas early for work reasons. However, that changed again and I didn't have to leave. I emailed May and thankfully she was still available. We reset the appt time and were back in business. Again, May arrived right on time and texted me when she was about 5 mins away. I headed down and met her near the elevators to escort her up. When I went down, I saw her right away and we hugged and said hello. We headed upstairs for the room....

I had admired her for some time but she was in her home land on a different trip to Vegas so I had to wait to see her.

I wanted to start off my trip with a visit with her. So, I arranged an afternoon early evening meeting.

She is prompt and on time...she is very representative of her great photos and reviews on TER and her site.

She is not to be missed if you like asian women who are sexually charged and very petite.

I met May in Las Vegas. Her screening is easy. She is so professional and flirty in her pre-meeting email. I couldn't wait to meet her. When I escorted her past my hotel security, she was conservatively dressed.....a beautiful Asian princess. In the elevator she grasped my hand and looked into my eyes and smiled. Her natural beauty was always present in my time with her. In my room, a glass of wine and conversation revealed a very interesting and passionate young woman who enjoys what we were doing. The simplest description of these memories is that I will see May again knowing that next time will offer a new experience with an exquisite petite beauty.

As I turned from shutting the door, May's beautiful smile invited a hug and the first of many kisses. As I held her petite body against mine, her hand grasped mine. Stepping back she said ... "I want to show you something". She disappeared into the bathroom. I poured two glasses of wine and presented the fruit and candy that I had procured for this moment. The next two hours are a permanent memory .

I originally emailed May after reading her reviews on TER, P411 and Date Check and visiting her website. I originally planned on a 2 or 3 hour date, but as we exchanged emails and I researched further, I decided I really wanted to get to know this charming and beautiful asian woman. So we arranged to have a longer dinner date. We continued to exchange occasional emails as our date came closer and closer. On the day before our date, we texted back and forth to arrange for me to meet her in the lobby of my hotel. So I was waiting in a discreet location and saw this gorgeous asian woman come into the lobby and start to send a text message on her phone. Since she looked very much like her pictures but even prettier, I just walked over and said hi May. She smiled at me and I knew this was going to be a great night. We dropped her bag in my room and proceeded to dinner. She finally removed her coat and revealed a very sexy dress that had a hard time concealing her fantastic breasts. I had an instant response to this beautiful sight that caused some serious growth below. I also noticed that all of the guys in the restaurant kept looking over at our booth and I am sure they were wondering how a guy like me had managed to be with the sexiest woman in the place. After a nice dinner, we went back to my room and the fun began. We sat on the couch and began LFK, carressing each other and then on to DFK. May excused herself to go to the bathroom to change into an even sexier outfit that left very little to the imagination. Then she asked me to join her in the bedroom. Non-VIPs, I highly recommend May is you like beautiful, sexy spinner types with a desire to please you.

She doesn't have it all the time. She said she might not have for awhile so I figured I would just wait. Out of the blue I get an email saying she had incall available that day. So I got in touch and set a time. Great incall location, nice place with no prying eyes or security issues. Entered the room and was amazed at how pretty and sexy she really is. Talked for a bit to get comfy and she is just downright sweet. Got to some intimate kissing...(will definately repeat and repeat again). Communicated with May for several weeks by e-mail before my trip to Las Vegas. Was staying with friends but went to the strip and stayed for an additional two nights as May only offers outcall. She had a dental emergency back in Boston and arrived back in vegas on the 27th. We had scheduled for an early morning appointment on the 28th, but due to the Dental appointment she requested a late afternoon appointment instead. She arrived on time, and was standing in the lobby near a large Christmas tree. She was dressed exquisitely and was the perfect Christmas gift. She greeted me with a hug and I was highly impressed by her class and friendly demeanor. On up to the room and since the time was for two hours, we started out with a glass of white wine and some conversation. She was a petite knockout and I was looking forward to the action. She than excused herself to put on some lingerie in the bathroom. She came out in a black slingshot type of lacy black lingerie with lacy thigh high stockings and black platform stiletto heels. She was dressed smartly and looked professional yet sexy and would fit in with the young, hot crowd at my upscale hotel. We proceeded up to my room where she changed into something really sexy and proceeded to enjoy a class of wine and then things heated up.....VIP's continue.

I made arrangements to meet with May via email before I traveled to Las Vegas and then left a voice mail message when I arrived and had a room number to provide. We texted back and forth a couple of times during the day before our evening appointment and May arrived as promised. A recent reviewer mentioned her braces. Well the braces are removed and her teeth look wonderful. She arrived wearing a long coat that concealed the short skirt and top she was wearing underneath. She looks every bit as wonderful in person as she does in her pictures. She's a great kisser, gives a very good massage and is VERY affectionate. Don't miss an opportunity to meet with her.

I was scheduled to watch another big boxing fight in vegas, and I saw May's profile. Her reviews were all awesome, so I decided to drop her a line or two. She responded right away, so I asked if she was free Fri afternoon. She said she was, so took we planned on how to meet up. Fri afternoon came, and she came in an outfit that concealed her sexy body (I like women who are discreet). Took her up to my room, and fun began. VIPs read on... (non-VIPs, I highly recommend May. She's the best of what Thailand can offer. If you've been there, then you'd know what I'm talking about.) 😊

I saw May's reviews on the TER and visited her web-site. I got lucky at the tables so I thought I'd try to see her that night. Since she used the White List to verify we were able through 3 e-mails and one PM to arrange a date for that evening. She texted me with her progress towards my hotel and texted me once she got to the elevator. Shortly thereafter there was a soft knock on the door and I opened it to a super hot young lady. I knew right away that this would be a great date. VIPS read on all others make a date with May.

Was going to Vegas for a conference, and set things up with May ahead of time. Was looking for a nice, petite Asian girl, and she definitely fit the bill. Great body, sweet face, and very petite. She arrived right on time, dressed as I requested (jean shorts and a t-shirt), and looked like a hot, sexy co-ed ready to party. We chatted for a while, started some light kissing, which led to some deeper kissing, some fondling, and finally some clothes starting to tumble off. Incredibly nice body - natural looking and feeling breasts were a wonder to behold (and i wanted to be holding them!). 😊 Read on if you can. If you can't, let's just say it was a great night, and I highly recommend.

Out of the blue I get an email saying she had incall available that day. So I got in touch and set a time. Great incall location, nice place with no prying eyes or security issues. Entered the room and was amazed at how pretty and sexy she really is. Talked for a bit to get comfy and she is just downright sweet. Got to some intimate kissing...(will definately repeat and repeat again). If your gonna spend this kind of money on an asian girl, May is your girl. You get more than your moneys worth.

I had the chance to spend 6 dates with May in my recent visit to Vegas. I originally booked her for my first night only but quickly realized that she was way above average. While once in a lifetime can only happen once really, I admit she is much better performance wise than a 9 though. Our first meeting, she was outcall to my hotel, was on time and communicated with me since leaving her house via TEXT Messages. She looked super hot in a nice evening dress appropriate for Casino Nightlife. I spent the remainder of my trip seeing her for Dinner, Shows, and overnights and she was always a perfect companion. For Non-VIP's, I recommend her highly. It is rare you find such a happy, social, sweet lady wrapped up in the hottest little sexy package you could ever imagine.

I was in Las Vegas for the week on business. I emailed May my first night in town to set something up for later in the week. I prefer incall, because of all the business associates I'm with. May told me she would arrange incall for the last night I was in town. I was a little concerned, because if there was a problem, I might not get a chance to see this wonderful lady.

May emailed me mid week and gave me the name of the somewhat off the strip upscale businessman's hotel she would be staying at. May's communication skills are excellent, emails were always returned quickly and on the day of the date she emailed me to confirm we were still on. I drive over to the hotel at the end of the day and call May for the room number. She picks up and on the first ring gives me the room number, this was the first time I actually talked to her, there really wasn't any need to talk to her since I pretty much knew from all the great reviews I was in for a super time. And boy did I have a great time. Highly recommend. If you looked up spinner in the urban dictionary, you'd see a picture of Sweet May !

Was in Vegas for the weekend and was looking for company set up meeting with May thru TER which made it very easy (she does screen) so you will need references. Date was set stayed on constant contact up until the day by email. Agreed to meet in the lobby due to security at casino I was staying at. I was taking pictures of a group of beautiful asian girls who just walked in (ironicaly) when May comes walking in I waved at her so she could see me, she was laughing because of my predicament (I had about 20 girls handing me 20 cameras to take their group photo) anyways May looked beautiful dressed conservatively which is ok by me. We made our way to the room. VIP's read on this girl was awesome...

I've seen quite a few escorts in Las Vegas over the past year, and this is the first one who was worth writing a review for. I first emailed May a few weeks back, got verified, and set up an early evening appointment at her incall location, which was a nice off-strip hotel-casino.

Upon arrival, I was very impressed at how incredibly gorgeous she is! May is the first woman I've seen who actually looks BETTER than depicted in her photographs. Someone find this girl the right photographer! She is a real cutie....petite, with an amazing figure and smooth, brown skin.

The atmosphere was very serene, and she had set the mood by lighting several candles and dimming the lights. I'm not sure what kind of perfume she was wearing, but it was intoxicating....she was a pleasure to all of my senses. Soooooooo.....I hopped in the shower and prepared for the fun!

I saw a posting from May on the TER Boston board a couple of weeks ahead of her visit. As a lover of petite ladies in general, and petite Asian ladies in particular, this was a no-brainer for me after I checked out her excellent TER reviews. After a pleasant exchange of e-mails and painless screening, the appointment was set and May provided her phone number. I confirmed with her by e-mail after her arrival in Boston. When I arrived at the hotel, she called me with the room number a couple of minutes ahead of the appointed time, and said to come on up.

I entered her room to discover a petite and very attractive Thai lady, wearing expensive lingerie and looking exactly like her pictures on the website, or maybe even better in person. She describes herself as 4'10 and 85 pounds, statistics that appeared to be accurate. She had braces on her teeth, but that did not detract in any way from her appearance or from the overall experience. Her body is truly remarkable, well-proportioned for her height, and without an ounce of excess fat to be found anywhere. What a sexy little package – I could not wait to unwrap it! Wow! That really says it all. This is one sweet little pocket rocket. The moment I saw her in person, she owned me. And that was before she slipped into the schoolgirl outfit. If not for the rules she'd be a 10, but I'm getting ahead of myself. I contacted May via e-mail and we made arrangements a week in advance. She arrived at the hotel 5 minutes early and gave me a ring. I headed down to the lobby (which took awhile given the size of my hotel), and we texted back and forth during my journey. In the lobby, an older gentleman waved to someone behind her real big and she thought he was waving at her and that it was me. Needless to say, he was disappointed not to have my name when she asked... LOL. We had a good laugh about that when we finally found each other. The walk to the elevator and room took a lifetime. I have to admit that the tiny spinner Asian fantasy was working for me when I booked with Sweet May. I checked her reviews and she seemed to be the enthusiastic type. I submitted the form well in advance of her visit and she emailed me to confirm that my references were A-OK.

It seemed like a long wait, and May even emailed me to ask if I was still planning on our meeting. I replied yes and we arranged the contact method.

As May slipped from behind the door I knew that the “tiny” part was assured, and she looked great in a slip over dress and heels. A few hello kisses and I hopped in the shower. Read on for the “spinner” part.

I was planning my next trip to Las Vegas, this year's annual golf outing with a civi buddy. My friend and I were scheduled to golf every morning, and then after golf, we would each go off and do our own thing. He and his wife were to meet some relatives and party each day after golf, and I would party with friends from Vegas. It was one of my few golf trips to Las Vegas where I brought my clubs, and actually played.

I had seen May's Las Vegas ads and her outstanding TER reviews ever since she arrived in Las Vegas. Now, I already have a "Thing" (no, not that thing, I mean I really enjoy spending time with Asian ladies). So after I had completed my research, I contacted May via P411 requesting to be pre screened, so that during my visit to Las Vegas, setting up a date would be seamless. I sent off a request with my reference information that included the dates that I would be in Vegas, but, I couldn't at that time make a firm appointment, because I was going to be with my civi friends and I couldn't give any more then a 24 hour notice. In less then 15 minutes, I received an email from May. She had verified my reference information and would be available to see me during my stay in Las Vegas.

As it turned out, even before I departed home for Las Vegas, my friends had completely scheduled activities that would make it impossible for me to have any fun side activities while we were together. The good news was, I would be in Las Vegas an additional 5 days after they returned home. About 10 days prior to my visit, I contacted May to request a definite day, time and length of our date. Again, within 15 minutes, May responded that she wasn't available for the exact time that I requested, but, she offered times that she would be available both before, and after my requested time. I selected a mutual agreeable time, and she immediately confirmed that our appointment was all set. Two days later, I realized that I had already committed to picking up a friend from the airport during the time that May and I had agreed to meet. I sent an email to her apologizing for my error, and requested to meet for an early morning appointment. Once again, within minutes, May responded that she understood my dilemma, thanked me for letting her know, and had my new request time available, so we made the change to the time that I had requested. The evening before our scheduled date, I received and email from May, confirming that we were still on target to meet early the following morning, and that she was looking forward our date. I replied that I was excited to see her as well, and that I would meet her downstairs by valet. About 20 minutes before we were suppose to meet, I got a text message from May, she told me that she had arrived at my hotel, and was waiting for me by valet. Within just a couple of minutes, I was at valet to greet my new friend.

When I arrived at valet, there sat a delightful little prize package. We introduced ourselves, and then headed up to my room for our morning adventure. When we arrived at the room, May removed her knee length spring coat, to expose a very sexy form fitted dress. We sat on the bed and chatted for a while, and then she asked me to help her remove her dress. She had on a very cute black bra with a matching skimpy black thong. We began with some soft kissing, and light fondling. We helped each other remove all of our clothes, and continued with more lfking that led to dfk's and sensual touching.

Non VIP's May is truly a treasure, she is a real beauty that has a fantastic body, is a true pleaser, is intelligent, and very skilled. She is one of the most professional providers that I know. Aside from being a fabulous provider, I have found non better then her as far as communicating quickly via email, or text. She is very accommodating and customer service oriented, is genuine and fun. This was my first visit of many more to come. May's handle really fits her to a tee, because she really is

It was easy setting up an appointment using one of the established screening services. We exchanged several e-mails and I texted her on the day of the appointment to confirm. She texted me when she was on her way up to my room - she arrived right on time. May is very nice looking and is a true spinner. I enjoyed my time with her - VIPs read on.

May and I spent some time via email to set-up a time to meet during my recent business trip to Las Vegas. We originally supposed to see each other on Friday, but an opening in both our schedules allowed us to meet earlier. She is very punctual and answers all her emails and texts very quickly. She is very easy to talk to and she is very open to working with one's schedule. She arrived on time, and she looked stunning. The pictures are gorgeous, but when you see her in person! I could not wait to get started with our date.

I submitted her form and May emailed back within about 15 minutes. Easy verification. Turns out she didn't have incall available at that time, so I offered to pick her up and bring her to my house. She was fine with that. Her pictures are right on, but I didn't really appreciate how hot she is until I met her in person. She was wearing a tight fitting dress that it didn't take long getting off of her once we got to my place. Black bra and panties underneath. Killer body for such a small babe.

What you see is what you get with May. Check out her website. Photos are dead-on. So petite and a lot of fun. She enjoys her chosen profession. Easy to communicate with. If you think she's your type, I can't imagine you'd be disappointed.

She's exactly what she advertises. The pictures are spot on and she's a real spinner type. She hosts an incall every now and then. Extremely fun, has a great attitude and extremely sexy! She response fast to emails. NON-VIP – she's worth it. No questions ask. Definitely GFE.

I saw May's post on the TER Las Vegas Board. I waited until she has a few reviews under her belt, and then contacted her for an appointment. I was attending a business meeting in Las Vegas for 3 days. I scheduled her on my 3rd day for 2 hours in the evening. All I can say is "what you see is what you get" The website site is the perfect representation of what she is all about.

Don't hesitate to contact her. VIPs read on. She is a good one.

We had exchanged emails with reference info and I asked for incall — she let me know when she could see me. Her emails are upbeat and she shared her incall hotel the morning of my appointment. When I reached the hotel she let me know her room # and up I went. Behind the door was an extremely attractive petite Thai woman with a big smile and long black hair dressed in a teddy with heels on. She immediately hugged me and off to the edge of the bed for some warm up chit chat and massaging each others legs. I get up and placed the donation in plain view and asked if I could wash my hands. When I returned she started to undress me

I saw Sweet May post her first ad on the Vegas board a couple months ago and kept my eye on her knowing that I would be out to Vegas soon. Sweet May is a very petite sexy Thai provider that enjoys what she does and is skilled. I had a nice time with her and she left me completely satisfied. Her pics are accurate and she has a great attitude. Non-Vips, she is the real deal and if you like very petite providers I recommend her.

I contacted May via email in late afternoon and a few hours later she replied and was able to set up a date for early evening. For nonVIPs, she is beautiful, offers amazing service, and a real sweetheart. She is not confident in her English but it is better than she thinks it is. She arrived at my condo and I met her downstairs. She had a thigh length overcoat on and looks exactly like her pics. We made our way to the elevator and to my condo. I had a fire going since it was unseasonably cool and she just wanted to curl up in front of it. She took her jacket off and beneath was a very tiny woman with a very sexy short dress on. We started DFKing on the coach and that led to her removing the dress and exposing a flawless, thin, and spectacular body with a perfectly sized rack for her build. She worked me out of my clothes without much prodding, straddling me and giving me a great massage of the face w/her fantastic bolt ons. I was an absolute rock and she...

I saw her add on TER and tried to find some additional information about her. There wasn't much available, but she seemed really pleasant via email and it was obvious that she wanted to make a good start out here in Vegas. (Looks like she use to work in Boston) She was extremely easy to contact via email and is also on P411 and Date-Check. We agreed on a morning appointment down in Henderson. She arrived on time and was dressed conservatively with a cute little black trench coat. The short story is that she's a very beautiful friendly asian who will put a smile on your face. Also she's probably the smallest lady I've ever met.

I was venturing to Las Vegas and saw a posting from May on the Las Vegas Message board. She was new and had no reviews, but her photos revealed a perfect little spinner body. I decided to TOFTT – something I rarely do. Upon my arrival in vegas I emailed and we exchanged possible times finally setting up an appointment. She arrived on time, was as attractive as her pictures, and delivered a quality hour long experience.

Sweet May just relocated to Las Vegas from Boston a few weeks ago. She posted on TER upon her arrival and got my attention right away with her website. She posted again about a week later offering a discount since she didn't have any reviews as an independent. Normally I would wait for a review or two but decided to set something up with her and I am really glad I did. For those of you who were fortunate enough to see Sundrie, May is on par with her although even smaller.

May doesn't drive here yet so I offered to pick her up which was not far from my home. She was right on time looking sexy as hell and wearing a trench coat on a cool day. Drove to my place with her holding my hand and rubbing my leg the whole time. Very sweet. Showed her around my home and headed upstairs where she peeled off her coat revealing nothing underneath except for an outstanding looking teddy that accentuated her petite but fantastic body. Let the fun begin. Non VIP's, a great time with a very sweet lady. Will repeat for sure.
